One Day Online Workshop Report on "Reporting from Ground Zero"

Introduction: On 28th October 2023, Shri Guru Govind Singhji College (B.J.), Malegaon Road, Nanded, organized an insightful one-day online workshop titled "Reporting from Ground Zero." The workshop aimed to provide participants with a deep understanding of the challenges and techniques involved in reporting from the ground during critical events. The event was coordinated by Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule and featured an expert session by Prof. Vikas L. Kadam, who also serves as the Principal of Shri Guru Govind Singhji College.

Workshop Details:

Date: 28th October 2023

Mode: Online

Hosted by: Shri Guru Govind Singhji College (B.J.), Malegaon Road, Nanded

Guest Speaker: Prof. Vikas L. Kadam, Shri Guru Govind Singhji College (B.J.), Malegaon Road, Nanded

Coordinator: Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule

Principal: Dr. Vikas Limbaji Kadam

Workshop Overview: The workshop began with an inaugural session where Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule welcomed the participants and introduced the topic of the workshop. He emphasized the significance of ground reporting in journalism, particularly during times of crisis, conflict, or disaster, where accurate and timely information is crucial.

Session by Prof. Vikas L. Kadam: Prof. Vikas L. Kadam, an esteemed academician and experienced journalist, led the main session of the workshop. His discussion covered various key aspects of ground zero reporting:

- Introduction to Ground Zero Reporting: Prof. Kadam began by defining what constitutes ground zero reporting and why it is a critical component of journalism. He highlighted the role of journalists in providing firsthand accounts and authentic information directly from the scene of events.

- Challenges of Ground Reporting: Prof. Kadam shared insights into the numerous challenges faced by journalists on the ground, including safety concerns, ethical dilemmas, and the pressure of reporting under extreme conditions. He provided real-life examples to illustrate these challenges.
- Techniques and Best Practices: The session included a detailed discussion on the techniques and best practices for effective ground reporting. Prof. Kadam emphasized the importance of preparation, verifying facts, maintaining objectivity, and building trust with sources. He also discussed the role of technology in modern ground reporting, including the use of mobile devices and social media for real-time updates.
- Ethical Considerations: Prof. Kadam touched upon the ethical responsibilities of journalists when reporting from ground zero. He stressed the need for accuracy, sensitivity, and respect for the dignity of those involved in the events being reported.
- Case Studies: The session was enriched with case studies of major events where ground zero reporting played a pivotal role in shaping public perception and response. Prof. Kadam analyzed the reporting techniques used in these cases and the impact they had on the broader media landscape.

Interactive Session and Q&A: The workshop included an interactive session where participants had the opportunity to engage with Prof. Kadam directly. Participants asked questions about the practical aspects of ground reporting, including managing personal safety, handling emotional stress, and navigating the ethical complexities of the job. Prof. Kadam provided insightful answers, drawing from his extensive experience in the field.

Summary: The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks from Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule. He expressed his gratitude to Prof. Vikas L. Kadam for sharing his expertise and to all participants for their active engagement. He acknowledged the importance of such workshops in equipping future journalists with the necessary skills and knowledge to excel in the field of journalism.
