One Day Online Workshop Report on "Gandhian Thoughts"

Introduction: On 27th January 2024, Shri Guru Govind Singhji College (B.J.), Malegaon Road, Nanded, organized a one-day online workshop on "Gandhian Thoughts." The workshop aimed to provide participants with a deeper understanding of Mahatma Gandhi's philosophies and their relevance in contemporary times. The event was coordinated by Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule and featured an insightful session by Prof. Attar M.H. from Late Bhimrao Chavan Arts & Science College, Chavanwadi (Barhali), Mukhed.

Workshop Details:

Date: 27th January 2024

Mode: Online

Hosted by: Shri Guru Govind Singhji College (B.J.), Malegaon Road, Nanded

Guest Speaker: Prof. Attar M.H., Late Bhimrao Chavan Arts & Science College, Chavanwadi (Barhali), Mukhed

Coordinator: Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule

Principal: Dr. Vikas Limbaji Kadam

Workshop Overview: The workshop began with an inaugural session where Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule welcomed the participants and introduced the theme of the workshop. He highlighted the timeless relevance of Gandhian thoughts in addressing modern societal challenges and emphasized the importance of understanding these philosophies in today's world.

Session by Prof. Attar M.H.: Prof. Attar M.H., a respected scholar with deep knowledge of Gandhian philosophy, led the main session of the workshop. His presentation covered several key aspects of Gandhian thoughts:

- Introduction to Gandhian Philosophy: Prof. Attar began by providing an overview of Mahatma Gandhi's life and his journey as a leader of India's independence movement. He discussed Gandhi's core beliefs, including non-violence (Ahimsa), truth (Satya), and the concept of self-reliance (Swadeshi).

- Gandhi's Vision of Social Change: Prof. Attar elaborated on Gandhi's vision of a just and equitable society. He explained how Gandhi's principles of Sarvodaya (the welfare of all) and trusteeship were intended to create a harmonious social order. He also discussed Gandhi's emphasis on rural development and the upliftment of the marginalized sections of society.
- Relevance of Gandhian Thoughts Today: The session highlighted the enduring relevance of Gandhian thoughts in the context of contemporary issues such as social justice, environmental sustainability, and global peace. Prof. Attar emphasized how Gandhi's ideas on non-violent resistance and civil disobedience continue to inspire movements for social and political change around the world.
- Gandhi's Educational Philosophy: Prof. Attar also touched upon Gandhi's ideas on education, particularly his concept of "Nai Talim" or basic education. He explained how Gandhi envisioned education as a means of developing character and self-sufficiency rather than merely acquiring academic knowledge.

Interactive Session and Q&A: After the lecture, an interactive session was held where participants had the opportunity to ask questions and share their thoughts. Prof. Attar addressed a variety of questions, ranging from the application of Gandhian principles in modern governance to the role of youth in promoting Gandhi's ideals. The session was engaging and provided participants with a deeper understanding of how Gandhian thoughts can be applied in their personal and professional lives.

Summary: The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks from Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule. He expressed his appreciation to Prof. Attar M.H. for his enriching session and thanked the participants for their active participation. He also acknowledged the efforts of the organizing team in making the event a success.

The one-day online workshop on "Gandhian Thoughts" was highly successful in fostering a renewed appreciation for Mahatma Gandhi's philosophies. Participants left the workshop with
