Report on the One-Day Workshop: "Our Constitution"

Introduction: On the 25th of January 2020, a one-day workshop titled "Our Constitution" was held at Shri Guru Govind Singhji College (B.J.), Malegaon Road, Nanded. The workshop aimed to educate students and faculty members about the significance of the Indian Constitution, its core principles, and its impact on the functioning of the Indian democracy. The event was strategically scheduled a day before Republic Day, reinforcing the importance of constitutional awareness.

Workshop Details:

Date: 25th January 2020

Venue: Shri Guru Govind Singhji College (B.J.), Malegaon Road, Nanded

Guest Speaker: Prof. Udgirkar M. Sureshchand, Shahir Annabhau Sathe Mahavidyalaya Mukhed

Coordinator: Prof. Amol Deepakrao Dhule

Principal: Dr. Vikas Limbaji Kadam

Opening Remarks: The workshop began with an introductory speech by the Principal, Dr. Vikas Limbaji Kadam. He welcomed the participants and emphasized the critical role that the Constitution plays in safeguarding the rights and duties of Indian citizens. Dr. Kadam highlighted the relevance of understanding the Constitution in today's socio-political environment and encouraged everyone to actively participate in the session.

Workshop Overview: The session was led by the distinguished guest speaker, Prof. Udgirkar M. Sureshchand from Shahir Annabhau Sathe Mahavidyalaya Mukhed. Prof. Udgirkar is an expert in constitutional law and has extensive experience in teaching and promoting constitutional awareness. His session was comprehensive and engaging, offering valuable insights into the Constitution's framework and its application in everyday life.

Key Highlights of the Workshop

- 1. Introduction to the Indian Constitution: Prof. Udgirkar began the session with an overview of the Indian Constitution, discussing its historical background and the vision of the framers. He emphasized the importance of the Preamble, which encapsulates the core values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

- 2. Fundamental Rights and Duties: A significant part of the workshop focused on the Fundamental Rights and Duties enshrined in the Constitution. Prof. Udgirkar explained each of the Fundamental Rights, including the Right to Equality, Right to Freedom, and Right to Constitutional Remedies, among others. He also discussed the Fundamental Duties, highlighting the responsibilities that come with these rights.
- 3. Directive Principles of State Policy: The session covered the Directive Principles of State Policy, which guide the state in formulating policies aimed at achieving social and economic justice. Prof. Udgirkar explained how these principles, though non-justiciable, play a crucial role in governance and the development of a welfare state.
- 4. Structure of the Government: Prof. Udgirkar provided an overview of the structure of the Indian government, detailing the roles and functions of the Executive, Legislature, and Judiciary. He discussed the system of checks and balances that ensures the separation of powers and prevents the abuse of authority.
- 5. Amendments and Constitutional Developments: The workshop also touched upon the process of amending the Constitution, with Prof. Udgirkar explaining key amendments and their impact on Indian society. He emphasized the Constitution's flexibility, allowing it to adapt to changing circumstances while preserving its core principles.
- 6. Interactive Discussion and Q&A: The workshop concluded with an interactive discussion where participants posed questions to Prof. Udgirkar. The Q&A session was lively, with Prof. Udgirkar providing insightful answers that clarified complex constitutional concepts and their practical implications.

Summary: The one-day workshop on "Our Constitution" was a highly educational and thought-provoking event. Prof. Udgirkar M. Sureshchand's detailed and accessible presentation helped deepen the participants' understanding of the Indian Constitution and its significance in
