I. Introduction:

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is entered into by and between SGGS and APCF to establish a framework for mutual cooperation and collaboration. The parties recognize the benefits of working together to advance the interests of both institutions in the areas of education, research, media, and public outreach.

II. Purpose:

The purpose of this MOU is to set forth the terms and conditions under which SGGS and APCF will collaborate in various initiatives, including but not limited to student training, internships, joint research projects, and the sharing of resources. This partnership aims to enhance educational opportunities, foster media literacy, and contribute to community development.

III. Scope of Collaboration:

- 1. Student Training and Internships: SGGS will provide its students with opportunities for hands-on training and internships at APCF. This will include exposure to various aspects of journalism, reporting, editing, and media management.

- 2. Resource Sharing: APCF will make its media facilities, such as the newsroom and digital archives, available to SGGS students and faculty for educational purposes. SGGS will reciprocate by providing academic resources and expertise to support APCF's initiatives.
- 3. Publication Opportunities: SGGS students and faculty will have the opportunity to contribute articles, research papers, and other content to APCF for publication, thereby gaining practical experience and professional exposure.

IV. Terms of Cooperation:

- 1. Duration: This MOU is valid for a period of five (5) years from the date of signing, unless terminated earlier by either party with a written notice of three (3) months.
- 2. Confidentiality: Both parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of any sensitive information shared during the course of this collaboration.
- 3. Funding: Each party will bear its own costs and expenses incurred under this MOU, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.
